Advantageous Contract Would Have Gradually Changed Ownership.

Four men are accused of trying to trick A. Mitchell Palmer, Allen Property Custodian, into believing that he was in complete possession of the $10,000,000 Bayer Company, manufacturer of drugs and chemicals, notably aspirin, when he held merely a shell that was crumbling in his hands. They were lodged in everal jails around New York vesterday he alleged conspiracy.

The Bayer Company, whose main office is at 117 Hudson street, was taken over by the Allen Property Custodian in January. It is charged that the Providence, chemists, who specialized in making sulphuric colors. The purchase was made with the German money of the Bayer Company, it is charged, and the alien ownership of the Williams & Crowell Color Company, 9½ Maiden lane, which was incorporated forthwith, was concealed through German dummies who had the advantage of American citizenship.

it is alleged that the Williams & Crowell Color Company, Inc., was given a highly advantageous contract for dyes by the Bayer Company. This contract asred the Williams & Crowell Company f a surplus of more than $1,000,000 in two years, a surplus that was carefully otected by a provision limiting the vidends payable on the $100,000 of dividends payable on the $100,000 of capital stock of the company to 10 per cent., or $10,000 a year.

U-BOAT CHOKED WITH MEN. SAYS WITNESS

Were on Boat Which Sunk Penistone.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21. - Six days marine, which was so crowded with men that there was hardly room to sleep, convinced Capt. David Evans of the British steamer Penistone, sunk by the U-boat, that more exploits like the arming of the trawler Triumph are contemplated by the German raiders. On his visit here, where he reported his experience to naval officers, Capt. Evans explained that the submarine carried seventy-seven men, more than twice the number of a normal crew, and his impression was that its officers intended to convert some captured ship into a rader or use the vessel as a mother ship for U-boats, though it has been reported that double crews are been reported that double crews are carried on submarines in order to train enough men to keep up the warfare.

DENIES STARRETT PLAYED FAVORITES

Horowitz Says His Construction Company Didn't Get Its Full Share.

REVEALS CAMP PROFITS

Asserts They Do Not Exceed $400,000 on Contracts Totalling $13,000,000.

Special Despatch to Tax Sux WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.-Louis J. Horwits, president of the Thompson-Star rett Construction Company, was the principal witness before the special subcommittee of the Senate Military Committee having under the investigation the alleged concentration of contracts crew of the Schnace arrived at Caneo nied to-day that the corporation of intend to destroy the fishing fleets," the German commander said to Capt. Myhre.

The Triumph is owned by the North Atlantic Fisheries Company, a Canadian concern, and is one of the crack boats of the fleet. She was manned entirely by a Canadian crew. The vessel is 125 feet in length, fifteen feet deep with a twenty-two foot beam, and registers about 250 tons gross.

The Triumph left Portland, Me., Mouday for the fishing grounds. She had landed her catches at Portland during the summer for a canning company with extensive Government contracts, and for local dealers. The trawler Kellar of the sub-committee in repeated questions directed to Col. Gunby of the Quartermasters Corps intimated that Col. William A. Starrett, former president of the Thompson-Starrett Company, had used his influence as chairman of the Emergency Construction Committee to promote the interests of the company to the disadvantage of smaller contractors. Mr. Horowitz took the initiative with regard to his appearance as a witness and came to Washington without subpoena.

Got Less Than Its Share.

Mr. Horowitz prefaced his testimony with the deciration that the Thompson-Starrett Company, instead of having been a gainer through the connection of is former head with the Federal service had actually obtained less than its share f the cantonment construction business. He insisted that Col. Starrett had not been influenced to divert entracts toward the company of which he had previously been the dominating head. In fact, said he, there had been strained relations between the Starrett interests and other component factors of the cor-poration just before Cot. Starrett and his brothers withdrew in 1910.

"If anything." President Horowitz insisted, "Col. Starrett as head of the Emergency Construction Committee rather leaned the other way, turning contracts from the Thompson-Starrett Company in his effort to avoid a show of

"Col. Starrett is too honorable a man to consider favoring one concern above another," Mr. Horowitz continued. "I might say that I do not believe he has used the best of judgment in the award of many of the contracts for army camp work. If he had the Thompson-Starrett Company, with its capability for huge undertakings, would have had more con-

Starrett Interests Out.

There had been what the witness ermed "an altercation" in the composition of the Thompson-Starrett Company share in the corporation. "It hardly looks reasonable," he pursued, "to as-sume that Col. Starrett would go out of his way to aid the company after that." It has been alleged, Mr. Horowitz continued, that the Thompson-Starrett Company has made nearly $100,000,000 out of cantonment construction work since the United States entered the war This, he held, was an utterly ridiculous assumption. The entire profits of the concern, he said, would not exceed $400,-000 on contracts totalling $13,000,000.

After two days of inquiry it has become clearly evident to some of the members of the subcommittee that not a scintilla of evidence has been brought out to show that the Emergency Construction Committee has been guilty of indulging in favoritism. The suggestion that there has been discrimination in favor of the major corporations engaged in construction work throughout the United States has not been supported by any of the testimony thus far, and interest in the promised "disclosures" is already flagging.
